

Secluded within a pristine nature reserve, Copper Creek is a scenic community of luxury estate homes situated on large, private homesites - from 3 to over 11 acres each. This exclusive setting is the perfect canvas for timeless homes of exceptional quality and appeal. Blending the relaxed atmosphere of country living with a close proximity to all the destinations and amenities you desire, Copper Creek achieves the pinnacle of magnificent living. Beautiful homes in an exclusively lush, rural setting are the focal point of the Copper Creek lifestyle, but convenience to all the places you want and need to be is an extremely welcome benefit. Just two miles from the 79 corridor and Cranberry, and 12 miles from the heart of downtown Pittsburgh, Copper Creek living means a fast commute to the parks, entertainment, and shopping venues your lifestyle demands. Forty minutes to the Pittsburgh Airport brings lengthy commutes down to a more enjoyable venture.
